Score of Local Residents Sign For Hawaii Tour

Indications are that a score of localites will join the Polynesian's third annual "Aloha Week Holiday in Hawaii," according to Pete Reitz, The South Bay restaurateur reports that some reservations are still available for the nine-day tour, leaving the restaurant Oct. 16, via United Airlines jet flight to Honolulu.

The Polynesian has arranged the tour to coincide with traditional festivities of "Aloha Week," the gayest holiday of the year in Hawaii. Reitz, general manager of the exotic Torrance dining spot, will personally conduct the excursion. Harry Baty's "Polynesians" will entertain members of the tour en route to Honolulu and during their stay in the islands.

The fun-packed round-trip includes hotel reservations, beach parties and luaus, a round-the-island tour, Pearl Harbor cruise, and other surprise features. Reservations

Pen and Quill Club Rooms Get Fall Workout

With the arrival of the fall-and-winter season, many clubs and organizations are taking advantage of the special occasion dining rooms at the Pen and Quill in Manhattan Beach.

Available for private celebrations, accommodating groups of 10 to 200, are the main Banquet Room, which can be separated into three smaller private rooms, and the Club Room, an intimate dining area ideally suited for 35 people or less.

The Pen and Quill offers superb facilities and surroundings for birthday and engagement parties, wedding anniversaries, family celebrations, business meetings, and office parties.

should be made at The Polynesian as soon as possible to assure travel space and other accommodations.
